New Delhi, Sep 8, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - In 1981, a man envisioned to build a palatial name for elite clothing. And he came forward to bring together the needle and thread that would create history in exquisite tailoring. The doors of The Darzi Group finally opened at Rajouri Garden, to be called the best bespoke tailors in Delhi. And the pioneer of this, Sunil Mital.

The Darzi Group has made its mark in designing men's clothing with professional grace and expertise. The Father and Son duo have taken ahead of the name of custom tailoring to great strides. Like father like son, but with at a notch higher, Sushain did an Honours Degree in Bespoke Tailoring and a Masters' Degree in Pattern Design and Garment Technology from the London College of Fashion. It shows just not passion, but also the drive to learn from the books.

Since its inception, The Darzi Group has touched newer milestones in their journey. Studio Firang opened in 2001, a fabric store also offering custom tailoring in ethnic wear for men. Mirasu in 2016, for rare, high-end fabrics for the Indian market. Every turning point has opened up The Darzi Group in developing better options in the Indian elite consumer base. Bespoke tailoring has truly come a long way in partnering with International brands and delivering the best of clothing to discerning customers.

With The Darzi Group, elegance has found a new definition. Reputation and Trust in exquisite clothing are now “Be-Suited, Be-Spoke(n)”.
