

The CFPB Consumer Financial Protection Bureau Must be Dissolved - They PROTECT BANKS - NOT CONSUMERS

The Agency Created to Help Consumers is Actually TAXPAYERS Worst Nightmare

Los Angeles, Sep 11, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, otherwise known as the "CFPB" has a stated mission "The CFPB was created to provide a single point of accountability for enforcing federal consumer financial laws and protecting consumers in the financial marketplace"

However, how many Homeowners have made Complaints to the CFPB about Unfair, Deceptive, and Abusive Trade Practices of Major Banks that have:

- (1) wrongfully foreclosed on your property,
- (2) forged your official documents contained in the public records,
- (3) falsely represented their ownership of your property and obtained funds by illegal means,
- (4) improperly applied mortgage payments towards your principal balance,
- (5) failed to establish any title or ownership to your property that they wrongfully obtained by forcible eviction,
- (6) taken your properties by forcible eviction despite the fact that you have already paid your mortgage in full,
- (7) issued additional loans at the time of underwriting that you were never aware,
- (8) allowed their subsidiary to steal away your property for far undervalue at a "public auction" that only they knew about,
- (9) misrepresented to you that you would receive a loan modification but when waiting for the paperwork to be received in the mail you were served with an eviction notice,
- (10) illegally recapitalized arrears and disproportionate interest on arrears back into your stated modification principal balance, leaving you underwater -200%, or more?????

(11) Does the Bank Owe You Money and the CFPB Refuse to assist you in obtaining it? Have they given you access or opportunity to the restitution amounts set aside by Federal and State Restitution funds???

(12) We you a part of the US Attorney General, New York Attorney General, Illinois Attorney general multiple global settlements with Goldman Sachs, Lehman Brothers, AIG, Taylor Bean Whiticker, Chase, Wells Fargo, Bank of America, at total more than $10 Billion Dollars in Restitution to the Borrower / Homeowner that less than 1% of those eligible have redeemed compensation for? Did you know these fund even existed???

(13) Did you know if you as the home/owner do not redeem the compensation set aside in these "global settlements" referenced in Q-12 by in or about around 2021 the entire money reverts back to the very same banks who defrauded you?

(14) Has the CFPB ever contacted you about these monies available to you or research said availability on your behalf?

(15) Is this the type of "consumer watchdog" that the homeowner deserves? And then they Ban CFLA from providing said information even if for free.

But what does this Great Bureau do to help you? Have they done anything to help you?

With more than 1,000 Employees and over 100 Licensed Attorneys at the CFPB shouldn't we as consumers have the right to get some remedial assistance on issues related to these toxic loans from the Bureau empowered with the "Policing of Financial markets on behalf of consumers" Mr. Benjamin Vaughn, Gabriel Hopkins, and Collin Reardon? Will you please help us, consumers?
