

Author Releases Compelling Sequel to Much Lauded First Novel

The story continues with new characters adding mayhem

TRAILS TO AND TALES OF SANDERSON, TEXAS

The Saga Continues
Book 2

Cleo W. Robinson Jr.

Pittsburg, Oct 25, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - OMAHA, NE. — Trails to and Tales of Sanderson, Texas: The Saga Continues Book 2 by Cleo W. Robinson, Jr. is the sequel to his highly successful first novel Trails to and Tales of Sanderson, Texas. The sequel still has the same characters we loved in the first book, but new fascinating and interesting characters join the fray to keep the action and the story moving. Fast-paced and well-written, readers are sure to enjoy this book as it pulls no punches and Robinson has no qualms with his storytelling, saying it as it is, no matter how bloody or sexy.

For nine months, between high school and college, Robinson lived in Sanderson, Texas where he gathered local stories and characters. He combined the stories he collected from Sanderson with some of the tales his father shared to him as he was growing up. Using these two sources, some of his experiences, and creative mind, he was able to produce two books set in Sanderson, Texas.

“With Robinson’s seemingly endless supply of straight-talking stories and Paul Bunyan-style characters, he draws adult readers—male and female—inside thirty captivating chapters. A stop by the Turner Hotel Café becomes a must, where every reader will quickly get to make some real, true fictional friends,” says Donna Ford of The US Review of Books.
