About Crichton Removals

The company was established by Peter and Shirley Crichton in the late '60s which quickly expanded into a large and well-known business. From being a small furniture removal company to owning numerous trucks and own warehouse, the company's journey has been nothing short of remarkable. Crichton Removals has even won awards and recognition for outstanding service and has become an industry leader. Winning the Australian Achiever Award for excellence in customer service for two years in a row shows the dedication the company has towards providing complete customer satisfaction. The company believes in putting the customers' needs first and that is what has helped them achieve success and grow into such a large entity.

The company's goal is to move forward protecting the reputation that has been built over the years and provide unparalleled service to its clients locally and interstate. To achieve this goal, they train their staff to be honest, friendly and ensure they put the customer needs first.
