Get to know Family Practitioner Dr. Hanan J. Rosenstein, who serves patients in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

New York City, Oct 25, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - As a board-certified family practitioner, Dr. Rosenstein's practice philosophy is getting patients to help themselves improve their health. His professional interests include men's health, HIV care, and lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ) health.

He is affiliated with the Allina Health network of hospitals and clinics, including Abbott Northwestern Hospital and Allina Health Uptown Clinic, both of which are located in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Abbott Northwestern Hospital is a 627-bed teaching and specialty hospital and the largest not-for-profit hospital in the Twin Cities. Allina Health Uptown Clinic is a medical and sexual health clinic providing care in internal medicine, family practice, and infectious disease.

In addition to his professional role, Dr. Rosenstein is associated with OutCare Health, a non-profit organization with the purpose of providing extensive information and education on LGBTQ healthcare. OutCare recognizes the unique health needs of LGBTQ individuals and connects them with the most appropriate healthcare providers, resources, and events.

A 1964 graduate of the University of Minnesota Medical School in Minneapolis, the doctor is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. A family practitioner is a doctor who specializes in caring for the entire family. They serve as a doctor for individuals regardless of their age and gender. Patients can be children, adults, and the elderly, and are treated for a wide array of medical issues.

On the subject of his personal interests, Dr. Rosenstein enjoys gardening and baking. With a passion for computers, he considers himself to be a 'Mac nerd'.
