Get to know Obstetrician-Gynecologist Dr. Haydee Docasar, who serves patients in Las Vegas, Nevada.

New York City, Oct 17, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Docasar is a board-certified obstetrician-gynecologist specializing in cosmetic gynecology and hormonal and wellness programs for all genders. She provides exceptional healthcare for women through every stage of their lives.
Currently, she is serving patients at her private practice in Las Vegas, Nevada. There, she offers a full range of innovative techniques and technologies to promote and maintain good health practices through all phases of a woman’s life, including hormonal solutions, weight control, beauty and wellness such as Botox, Juvederm or Kybella, as well as the top non-surgical rejuvenation procedures of ThermiVa, Thermi Smooth Face. She is also an integral member of the Laser Body Sculpting Institute, which specializes in laser lipolysis in Henderson, Nevada.

Beginning her career in women’s healthcare during her early college years in San Diego, Dr. Docasar worked with an adolescent teenage pregnancy program. She completed her studies in psychology with a focus on family and women’s health, before going on to complete medical school at Howard University in Washington, D.C. She completed her residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Washington Hospital Center in Washington, D.C.

With an extensive resume in lectures given on women’s healthcare topics, Dr. Docasar has been an attending teaching staff member at the Washington Hospital Center, the Bethesda National Medical Center, the University Armed Services College, and Touro University. She has also had the privilege of serving in the Navy at the Bethesda Naval Hospital in Bethesda, Maryland. Her experiences have encompassed academic medicine, military medicine, organized medicine with Kaiser Permanente, as well as the private sector of medicine with her own private practices.

Throughout her career, Dr. Docasar has been an advocate for women’s healthcare. She has been honored by the Congressional Hispanic Caucus for her involvement in raising awareness in Latino Healthcare. She also served 3 years on the Admiral’s Naval National Domestic Violence Committee.

In addition to being a Fellow of the American College of Cosmetic Surgeons, she is a member of the American College of Obstetrics & Gynecology and the Gynecological Cosmetic Surgeons. Moreover, she is board-certified in obstetrics and gynecology by the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology, a non-profit organization that provides board certification for practicing obstetricians and gynecologists in the United States and Canada.

Obstetrics and Gynecology is the medical specialty that encompasses the two subspecialties of obstetrics, covering pregnancy, childbirth, and the postpartum period, and gynecology, covering the health of the female reproductive system, including the vagina, uterus, ovaries, and breasts. An obstetrician-gynecologist, or OB-GYN, is a healthcare professional who specializes in female reproductive health. Some of Dr. Docasar’s areas of interest include hormonal therapy, infertility evaluations, teenage education, and expert witness work.

Her extracurricular activities include spending time with her two sons and participating in community service within the Hispanic community. Her Cuban and Argentine heritage has provided her with the language and social means of helping her Hispanic patients.
