

IGS unveils Omlly App for food catering

Celebrations made easy with Omlly!

Hyderabad, Oct 28, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - A new innovative service platform to order your food from reputed caterers near you and in your city.

Hyderabad, 21st August'2019: Innovtech Global Solutions (IGS) today launched Omlly App, an innovative technology platform for people to enjoy easy and convenient catering services in and across the city. Ms. Madhu Shalini, Tollywood Actress along with Mr. Kiran Vagga Founder & CEO Omlly unveiled the Logo and the app.

The online platform will focus on providing convenience and making every private event feasible by bringing the best possible food options from Caterers and Restaurants in and around the city. Whether it is a birthday party, wedding reception, house party or a corporate event, Omly will be a one-stop solution for customers with wide varieties of caterers that serve all range of cuisines.

The Omly APP is user-friendly with key features like dedicated Omly expert to your order for assistance, live tracking system etc. to help customer make the best decision.

Omly is one of the first online food delivery platforms in the city that has partnered with Caterers and Restaurants specialized in providing food to various small and large scale events. Keeping in mind the cosmopolitan demands of the city, Omly have also included catering partners specialized in various regional delicacies. Apart from being one of the most convenient junctions for the hosts, Omly will also serve as an ideal business platform for caterers who are looking to expand their services and create visibility to scale up their business. Partnering with best restaurants across the city, Omly with its full-service catering is dedicated to enhancing and projecting the good taste of its Caterers and Restaurant allies.

Mr. Kiran Vagga, Founder & CEO, Omly says, "Food is always an indispensable component of every event be it weddings, corporate events, reception or house party and we all want a remarkable event and happily satisfied guests. Here, the choice of catering staff plays a very crucial role. We at Omly identified the challenges and came up with a one-stop solution where a customer can explore every detail about the caterer they are planning to hire from an extensive option. Omly is a medium that acts as an assurance platform for customers who wish to rely on for a hassle-free and quality service.

"We are extremely excited with the initial response that we have received so far and we are planning to expand Pan India by 2024 in a phase wise manner. To further fuel our goals we will be looking for private equity and venture capital funding to expand our network in near future", added Mr. Kiran Vagga while talking about the expansion plans.
