

Massachusetts Rapper Young Fendi's soul soaking track 'fake friends' is pure bliss

The Massachusetts Rapper Young Fendi is entrancing the listeners with his heart-wrenching rap delivery and awe-inspiring backdrop in the latest track 'fake friends'.

Framingham, Oct 15, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - For any hip hop track, the delivery style of the lead artist is considered to be the most important fragment. But, in the latest releases, more importance has been given to the sound effects and the loud instrumentation. The Massachusetts Rapper Young Fendi has brought up a new style of music-making through his mesmerizing rap style. His latest track 'fake friends' is the perfect example of the fusion of contrasting factors. It is a track where rap meets up with well-written lyrics and an engaging soundscape. Right from the moment of pressing the play button, you will get the vibe that this track is not like any other rap song.

Conceptually the track feels quite real as the songs deal with real human emotions and incidents. And, the rap delivery of the lead artist has portrayed these emotions perfectly. The track has laid bare an artist of superior talent, who knows how to maintain the balance between various elements of music. The track goes to the depth of writing and captivates the listeners from the very beginning. There is something extremely unique about this track and the artist that you just can't help but engage yourself in the ambiance. The softness present in Young's vocal delivery leads the track with confidence and realness.

He is certainly the rapper, who can be looked upon by the rappers of the upcoming generations. The track 'fake friends' is the ultimate proof of this statement. There is strength present in the entire arrangement of the song that can only be observed by the true rap fans. No unnecessary effects have been used to craft this song, which has helped in bringing the actual taste of this genre. Young has a raw attitude in his vocal delivery that you can witness through the online music streaming platform
