

SEXPO IS BACK! Melbournians set to explore their intimate side at the world's largest adult expo.

SEXPO announces an electrifying 'Bringing Sexy Back' themed show at the Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre this November with an international guest line up like never before.

will be making its highly anticipated return to Melbourne this November. SEXPO Melbourne will be held at the state famous, Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre, debuting a fitting new theme, 'Bringing Sexy Back' encouraging guests to explore their intimate curiosities. In addition to sexual health and training seminars, competitions and product exhibits, guests will also be able to get up close and personal with some of the world's most famous male and female adult actors.

New owners, Australian Exhibition Group acquired the Australian license of the national expo at the beginning of 2019, bringing with it more than 28 years of experience running large scale consumer events across Australia. AEG are renowned for their highly popular, nationally running events Australian Tattoo Expo and Rites of Passage Tattoo Festival.

SEXPO Melbourne will welcome the most popular and arguably the most famous male actor in the adult industry, Johnny Sins. Often referenced as the "go-to guy" in adult entertainment, Sins has made over 2,300 videos in his career and collected an accolade of industry awards including 2018 Most Popular Male Performer by Women and 2018 Favourite Male Porn Star. This will be Sins' first-ever trip to Australia and he will be front and centre at SEXPO Melbourne. Other international guests include Joanna Angel, Jessica Drake, Sarah Jessie and also Janice Griffith, more famously known for her outspoken opinions on integrating more racial diversity into the adult film industry. Other well-known stars attending SEXPO Melbourne include Australia's very own Ryan James, StuckatZero, Jake Shy, Kiki Vidis, Monte Luxe, Kiara Edwards and Isabelle Deltore.

"We are thrilled to have acquired SEXPO Australia earlier this year and are excited to take the famous event to the next stage. The Melbourne expo includes a whole host of exciting performances with amazing acrobats and fire displays, we are flying in big stars and have organized expert speakers for our educational seminars that are guaranteed to leave even the most experienced guests feeling satisfied," says Kevin Mack, SEXPO Event Director. "The expo we put together in Brisbane earlier this year proved very popular with guests from all walks of life. Whether you have an interest in sexual health, hosting a bucks party or want to know what new products are on the market, SEXPO has it all. More Aussies are willing to embrace their intimate side and SEXPO is a weekend where like-minded people can explore their desires in a safe, friendly and fun environment."

SEXPO Melbourne will also have a theatre dedicated to the interesting S.H.A.R.E. (Sexual Health and Relationship Education) Seminars where guests can learn from registered sexologists, industry actors, sexual health educators, and relationship experts. Headlining the seminars this year will be Buck Angel, a producer of transgender male sexual wellness products and films. Buck was born female but never felt like a woman and struggled through life until he had the life-changing opportunity to transition to a man and finally live life authentically. Buck had many obstacles during his transition mostly due to no information for transitioning for 'FTM' transsexuals and will be educating guests at SEXPO Melbourne to bring this topic to light. Other S.H.A.R.E speakers include Intimacy Whisperer Pauline Ryeland who will host a class on how to keep the spark and the flame ignited in a relationship, providing some useful take-home techniques and Scarlett Amore, a full-service sex worker, author, illustrator, and meme-maker from Melbourne. The S.H.A.R.E seminars have always been a big attraction at SEXPO each year and these years line up is sure to excite and more importantly, educate guests on how to safely approach something new.

Other fun activities at the expo include the jaw-dropping stage performances and attending the fetish rooms. SEXPO Melbourne will showcase one amazing performer every hour including the UK's The Fuel Girls. Globally renowned for their thrilling pyro acts, The Fuel Girls have performed at some of the world's biggest arenas including an appearance on France's Got Talent and are not one to be missed. There will also be five specialty lounges to relax and socialize at for guests.

Furthermore, guests will be able to shop for the hottest products at SEXPO Melbourne. Interactive stalls showcasing innovative technologies including VR stations and Bluetooth toys are expected to be a highlight and all of the latest costumes and accessories will be on display so guests can explore and test and learn about the products from the developers themselves.

SEXPO Melbourne is an 18+ event and kicks off on Friday 8th November 2019 running through until Sunday 10th of November 2019 with ticket prices starting at just $35.00.
