

White Palace- the Must-Visit Heritage Property in Gujarat

Gujarat, Oct 12, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Gujarat is unquestionably one of the most sought after tourist destinations in India known for its wide diversity and heritage spots. While the state is essentially known for being the mystical kingdom of Krishna, it is also the birthplace of Mahatma Gandhi and its capital city Ahmadabad is regarded as the Manchester of the east. Lately, the Statue of Unity that is the tallest in the world has been constructed in Gujarat that has further marked the state's name in the world map. However, there is another reason that is steadily promoting Gujarat's tourism nationally and globally. The White Palace, located amidst the lush green serene landscape of Dhamdachha, Gandevi is undoubtedly the next dream destination for people all around the world.

White Palace was completed by the end of 2015-16 Its all-white architectural brilliance justifies its name. If you take a tour in the magnificent palace, its quintessential decor will make you feel like heaven with the white decor and design elements that pure bliss to your eyes and soul. The marble used in the palace has been imported right away from Italy and the exotic furniture is customized in Agra. This furniture is crafted with utmost intricacy and the detailing in them delivers class and sophistication. The White Place consist of six deluxe rooms with A-class facilities no less than any luxury suite. Each of the decor elements right from the chairs to swing, bed sheets and other showpieces are white and have been custom made in some of the ethnic locations in the country including Agra and Jaipur.

The enormous over 1400 Sq Feet lobby is the focal point of the White Palace including the gala living hall where top-notch events and meetings have been conducted. The venue has served as the hot spot for a different event and new launches where more than 100 celebrities from Bollywood have made their appearances. Apart from the six luxury suites, there is a Royal suite that is available for families, celebrities and V.I.P guests from all across the world.

While every corner of the White Palace will leave you awestruck, the terrace is yet another spot that offers you unlimited bliss that has two meticulously carved swings and eight engraved moving chairs. Here you can witness the beautiful natural scenery and also the waterfall fountain. The overall size of the land is over 80,000 sq feet amongst which the huge garden area of over 40,000 sq feet is beautifully maintained. If you take a tour around the garden, you will come across 20 different marble figures, richly crafted to perfection. The palm trees planted beautifully offers shade and you can inhale fresh oxygen that has become a rare thing in the cities.

Recently, The White Palace has become the prime venue for a photoshoot for fashion designers and Top-notch brands. Actor Shawar Ali's latest photoshoot in collaboration with Libas grabbed the eyeballs of fashion enthusiasts of the country. Celebrities like Mahi Vij and Jay Bhanushali and Khalid Siddiqui and Ishita Vyas have been to this grand venue. This heritage palace of Gujarat is surely has become the venue for some of the most celebrated events and occasions.

The visiting hours are from Monday to Friday from 10.am to 5.pm. For more details visit their official website <http://www.whitepalace.co.in>

For business enquiries email at admin@Whitepalace.co.in.

Media Contact

White palace, The Heritage palace of Gujarat

admin@Whitepalace.co.in

Source : White palace, The Heritage palace of Gujarat

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/white-palace-the-must-visit-heritage-property-in-gujarat-1647104893989742>