

A new digital marketing platform that will transform the business landscape in Uganda

Kampala, Nov 26, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - SNCT Marketing today announces the launch of its new digital marketing platform focused on Medium-Sized and large business in Uganda. Medium-sized and large businesses in Uganda looking for a service provider that focuses on growing, revamping, re-educating and managing their online presence, look no further. SNCT Marketing, Uganda's premier digital marketing services provider based out of Kampala, Uganda has opened its virtual doors.

The company plans to implement proven strategies and systems that will help grow your business, increase your revenue, and your fan base. Their ultimate mission is to create digital solutions tailored to your every branding need and create an enhanced engagement between you and your customers.

With the ever-changing needs of Uganda's consumers, SNCT Marketing offers a wide range of services including but not limited to SEO, strategy consultation, digital marketing, website design, content marketing, web hosting, copywriting, email marketing, graphic design, social media marketing, and so much more.

They also provide education and training services for companies and individuals looking to sharpen their tools and stay ahead of the curve. By providing informational content on topics such as technology, social media transformation, business, finance, and marketing; which can be accessed on their Education page; SNCT Marketing aims to develop the business landscape in the country.

“We want to make it easier for businesses to bring their vision to life, reach relevant audiences, re-engage with them, maximize ROI, and collect valuable engagement data that will propel them to a new level; helping them to compete on a global and domestic front. With so much going on in our lives, focusing on SEO and digital marketing concepts while constantly researching to keep up with the trends can be difficult to fit into our busy schedules. SNCT Marketing is here to take on that task. By scheduling a free, no-obligation, consultation with their team of expert marketers, SNCT Marketing can take what once was an afterthought and turn it into your businesses' number one source of leads and clients.” said Carl Kapapiro, Co-founder.

SNCT Marketing; the premier digital marketing agency in Uganda, was founded by Carl and Sarah after successful exploits in the digital marketing arena in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. The duo has traveled to several countries around the world including Australia, Hong Kong, Singapore, and India educating people on the power of digital marketing. They have worked with clients in the Philippines, Singapore, and Malaysia and helped their clients see great success in growing their businesses online. They have decided to return to Uganda to share this knowledge and help local businesses compete on an international level.

SNCT Marketing can be found via www.snctmarketing.com. To stay up to date on upcoming events, informative posts on impacts of social media on digital marketing and so much more, visit the website's blog page. Co-founders Sarah and Carl also provide valuable educational materials through their social media pages; Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and YouTube – be sure to subscribe, smash the like button, follow and share or simply interact.

Media Contact

SNCT APPS

carl@snctapps.com

60183529177

Uganda, Kampala

Source : SNCT Marketing

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/a-new-digital-marketing-platform-that-will-transform-the-business-landscape-in-uganda-1651265143733111>