

Ilias Atwani and Andre Allard Had A Once In a Lifetime Kind of Experience in the Inuit Villages

This Press Release is written to inform the readers about Ilias Atwani's experience at the Inuit villages.

Quebec, Nov 12, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Ilias Atwani has always had this passion for photography and taking advantage of the opportunity at hand, he participated in a photography contest organized by his company. Not only was he chosen as the winner of the competition, but also the picture clicked by him was further submitted to the Art of Mining contest. Ilias, along with the second-place winner was rewarded with a personalized tour of two local Inuit villages Salluit and Kangiqsujuaq. The tour played a significant role in changing Ilias' perception of Inuit villages and realized that the Inuit culture us one of social solidarity and warmth. He is quite assured that one can see it and feel it. Ilias and Andre both had a once in a lifetime kind of experience.

Ilias Atwani is an alumnus of Laval University who also attended a preparatory class for engineering school at the Institut Polytechnique privé de Casablanca. He had the privilege of working with the 2016 Grand Prize winner for a long time.

About Ilias Atwani

Ilias Atwani is an experienced Mining Engineer working with a senior Canadian gold mining company as a Mine Operations Coordinator (Mine Operations Dept.). He is skilled in mining oriented operational Analysis/Modeling: Surpac®, Whittle®, Talpac®; Programming: Matlab®, C/C++, VB; Management and logistics: SAP®, JD Edwards®; and CAD software like AutoCAD® (Amine & Promine), SolidWorks®, Silverscreen® (CAMP), 3DReshaper®. He is an alumnus of Laval University from where he obtained his Bachelor's Degree in Mining and Mineral Engineering in July 2012. He also attended Institut Polytechnique privé de Casablanca from Sept 2006 to Dec 2008 for his preparatory classes for engineering school. Currently, Atwani is pursuing his Executive Master of Business Administration (E-M.B.A) degree from Laval University.

Media Contact

Ilias Atwani

robert.william04121989@gmail.com

Source : Ilias Atwani

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/ilias-atwani-and-andre-allard-had-a-once-in-a-lifetime-kind-of-experience-in-the-inuit-villages-1649983221414398>

