

Nakamol Chicago is bringing all your jewelry fantasies under their second roof at Navy Pier

Chicago, Nov 25, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Jewelry is the most creative and elegant way of showcasing the beauty of women. It acts as the reflection of rich preference and also brings out the ethnicity of women. Jewelry designs vary from stylish to ethnic and there is no great thing across the globe than having all of the world-class designs displayed under one roof. The renowned jewelry store Nakamol Chicago made it possible through their first physical outlet at N Michigan Ave. and the online website. And, now they are opening their second physical outlet at the world-famous Navy Pier.

Nakamol Chicago believes that every woman is beautiful and at the end of the day, they all should be proud and happy. The company engineers handmade jewelry by using natural elements like leathers, silks, and genuine stone beads. The creative team believes in providing customers with world-class designs at the cheapest price possible. The combined effort of two teams, one based in Chicago and the other in Bangkok, offers the customers the true essence of American trend and the creative artistry needed to make the quality of the product unparalleled in terms of all the aspects. You can visit their official website <http://www.nakamol.com/> to know more.
