Dubai, Nov 8, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Utalkit is the second world's largest online learning platform. It is aimed at professional adults and students.

Utalkit has more than 10 million students and 10,000 instructors teaching courses in over 20 languages. There have been over 145 million course enrollments. Students and instructors come from 190+ countries and 2/3 of students are located outside of the U.S and United Arab Emirates. Founded by Eng.Blondel Seumo in 2015, the Headquarters is in Dubai Silicon Oasis, United Arab Emirates. Students take courses largely as a means of improving job-related skills. Utalkit has made a special effort to attract corporate trainers seeking to create coursework for employees of their company.

As of 2019, there are more than 30,000 courses on the website.^[2]

Utalkit serves as a platform that allows instructors to build online courses on topics of their choosing. Using Utalkit's course development tools they can upload video, PowerPoint presentations, PDFs, audio, zip files and live classes to create courses. Instructors can also engage and interact with users via online discussion boards.

Courses are offered across a breadth of categories, including business and entrepreneurship, academics, the arts, health and fitness, language, music, and technology. Most classes are in practical subjects such as Excel software or using an iPhone camera. Utalkit is currently planning to offer Utalkit for Business, enabling businesses to access to a targeted suite of over 1,000 training courses on topics from digital marketing tactics to office productivity, design, management, programming, and more. With Utalkit for Business, organizations will be able to create custom learning portals for corporate training.[5]

Utalkit offers paid and free courses, depending on the instructor.
