

A small town boy changing the lives , SSWT Appoints Gurpreet Sadh as Assistant Vice President

Delhi, Dec 6, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Sumanchna Social Welfare Trust headquartered in Delhi has appointed Gurpreet Sadh as their assistant vice president for strategy and Development. Gurpreet is the 2nd Assistant Vice president and has been appointed for a period of three years, it said in a statement.

Gurpreet will be responsible for SSWT's private sector work and co-financing operations. SSWT plans to scale up its Education sector operations and co-financing partnerships as part of its long-term Strategy for 2020 framework.

Gurpreet has over 3 years of experience and has served as Advocate in Hon. High Court and Supreme court of India along with in different government program. he is currently working as Legal council of IASR Foundation, by Sequoia Capital, World's Largest Investment Firm.

SSWT has been working closely with its member countries to reduce poverty and improve the quality of life and Education of their people. It currently has 67 members, and India is one of them. Besides providing debt funding to government agencies, SSWT also invests in fund-of-funds for equity investments in socially relevant sectors.

Media Contact

News Herald

hrd.ind@iasrfoundation.org.in

Source : News Herald

See on IssueWire