

Best Wedding Cakes Los Angeles- The Show Stealers of 2019

Glendale, Dec 4, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - There were times when white frosted cakes were the most loved and preferred to be cut at weddings. But over time, the interest and taste of people have changed and they are opting for something new. Among the latest trends, naked cakes in Los Angeles are gaining more limelight because of their unique and extremely elegant look.

These cakes are pretty easily recognized by their minimal garnishes and exposed layers. Not only are they just considered for the wedding, but also for birthday occasions and more. Even they are easy to bake at home. It's not just the wedding cake with less frosting, but it's a lot more than that. Talking in detail, these cakes also come in various designs and flavors ranging from simple chocolate and vanilla cake to all red topped with fresh blooms and seasonal berries.

Typically, they are of two types- Semi-Naked and Completely Naked Cakes. The completely naked, as the name suggests, is the one that has almost no frosting and topped with fruits or flowers. While the semi-naked is half bare and half frosted. Semi-naked cakes have the most distinctive and elegant look and have been the best wedding cakes Los Angeles in 2019. Because of their make and a thin layer of frosting, they are quite easy to bake and easy to transport!

Most often, these bare cakes are in yellow or white color, although you can explore them in all favors from fruit and chocolate to funfetti. Moreover, the frosting left off sides of the cake to let the cakes and the filling flavors to shine through. Definitely, there aren't any buttercream ruffles or fondant decals; however, it surprises you with the number of style options you can choose from.

The stunning display naked cake decorated on a timeless silver stand elevates the overall style of the cake, especially when it reflects shots of color from magenta and pastel pink roses, dahlias, and ranunculus. Besides, a few bright blooms tucked between tiers and arranged artistically around the base make the cake appear whimsical and romantic.

The other most satisfying cake would be the contrast between a dark chocolate cake and stark white icing with a finishing of vibrant blooms and simple garland around the base. This surely provides an elegant look to the wedding cake. Besides, several other varieties of these naked wedding cakes were the best trending in Los Angeles this year and is believed to continue for some years until something new comes.
