

Brian Page, DO, a Pain Medicine Specialist with Advanced Pain Management

New York City, Dec 11, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Page is a pain medicine specialist who believes in a multi-disciplinary approach to pain management, combining interventional pain techniques with physical therapy and medications to relieve pain. He is trained in the newest techniques such as kyphoplasty and spinal cord stimulation, as well as traditional techniques such as epidural steroid injections and other nerve blocks.

In addition to his affiliation with Banner Thunderbird Medical Center in Glendale, Arizona, the doctor is in practice with Advanced Pain Management. With several locations throughout the State of Arizona, Advanced Pain Management offers a vast range of treatments with a mission to provide effective and innovative pain management solutions. The clinic promises to deliver the most technologically advanced, minimally invasive diagnostic and therapeutic services currently available, all in a supportive and caring environment so that patients can reduce their chronic pain, eliminate their dependence on drugs, and return to an independent lifestyle.

A member of the American Society of Anesthesiologists and the American Society of Regional Anesthesia and Pain Medicine, Dr. Page earned his medical degree from the Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine and then went on to complete his training in anesthesiology and pain management at the University of Kansas.

He is board-certified in anesthesiology by the American Board of Anesthesiology (ABA) and in pain medicine by the American Board of Pain Medicine (ABPM). As members of the American Board of Medical Specialties, the mission of the ABA is to advance the highest standards of the practice of anesthesiology, while the mission of the ABPM is to improve the quality of pain medicine.

Pain medicine is a medical specialty that focuses on the evaluation, treatment, and prevention of pain. A pain doctor also called a pain management specialist or a pain specialist is a medical doctor or doctor of osteopathy who specializes in pain medicine.
