

Caringbah Compounding Pharmacy – Provide Paediatric Compounding Services to Meet Special Needs of Each Patient

Best Paediatric Compounding in Caringbah, Australia

Sydney, Dec 23, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Caringbah Compounding Pharmacy is a specialized team of pharmacists that create compounded medications to satisfy the healthcare needs of each patient. They understand the art and science of preparing gluten-free, sugar-free, and preservative-free medications in a flavourful manner. They produce medications in many flavours like apple, honey, raspberry, tropical punch, caramel, and so much more that are easy to consume. They prepare dosage in the form of liquids, troches, candies and much more that are not commercially available. They offer compounded medications for kids, pets, pain relief, male hormone replacement therapy, seasickness, and other conditions. The company ensures to deliver the finest quality products to patients as well as healthcare providers.

When a patient refuses to take a nasty a commercially available medication or a required medicine has been discontinued, creating a compounded medication is the right solution. Pharmacists can help to prepare flavourful medications to fulfill the special needs of individuals. Commercially available medicines may cause unwanted reactions and allergies. In such cases, compounding pharmacists can create a formula for both kids, adults or even pets that contain inoffensive ingredients. It is a great solution when kids are not able to consume medicines due to their large size or bad taste. From preparing succulent medications to individual dosage and everything else, compounding pharmacists can address the healthcare needs of each patient.

Caringbah Compounding Pharmacy offers treatment for various medical conditions that traditional allopathic medicines cannot help with. They are highly specialized in delivering paediatric compounding services to satisfy the different healthcare needs of each child. Their experienced pharmacists create medications in flavors like banana, pineapple, wild cherry, chocolate, peanut butter and much more so that every dosage tastes like candy. Not only this, but they also provide compounding services for various situations, including bio-identical hormones, thyroid health, pain management, weight loss, male hormone replacement therapy, and much more. The company is truly dedicated to eliminating the bitter or sour taste of medicines and overcoming an obstacle of well-being.

Caringbah Compounding Pharmacy offers medications into liquid form that is commercially available only in the tablet form. They hold vast experience of delivering proven alternative solutions of medicines when an individual is facing side effects from consuming them orally. They combine the necessary minerals and vitamins while preparing medicines to improve the well-being of patients. The flavors and colors of their compounded medications make them even more palatable which is especially advantageous for kids and pets. All of their medicines for best paediatric compounding and other needs are prepared by well-qualified pharmacists while considering the exact dosage and strength as suggested by a medical practitioner. Over the decades, they are serving customized medicines to a number of patients and winning their trust successfully.

About Caringbah Compounding Pharmacy:

Caringbah Compounding Pharmacy holds a qualified group of compounding pharmacists that create flavorsome medicines depending on the needs of each patient and advice of healthcare providers. They are specialized in paediatric compounding, male hormone replacement therapy, bio-identical hormones, pain management, omeprazole compounding, melatonin compounding, and much more. They prepare medication in various forms like liquid, capsule, troches, and much more that are not commercially available.

Address & Contact Details:

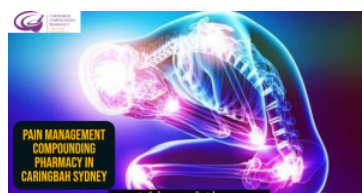

Address: 368 Port Hacking Rd, Caringbah

New South Wales, 2229

Phone: (02) 9524 6795

FAX: (02) 9531 4836

Email ID: caringbah@discountdrugstores.com.au

Media Contact

Caringbah Compounding Pharmacy

caringbah@discountdrugstores.com.au

(02) 9524 6795

368 Port Hacking Rd, Caringbah New South Wales 2229

Source : Professional Pharmacists

See on IssueWire

