Jessica Sevier is ready to take the industry by storm with her expressive singing in ‘Long Drive’ that talks about long lost love. The song will make you groovy!

Toronto, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - Young talent Jessica Sevier sets out to conquer the music scene with her hypnotic voice that helps her to draw an invisible bond with her listeners. Her vocal maturity draws the listener close and prepares them to plunge into the sensations that the singer has to offer. By taking a soothing and soul-stirring approach to melody the artist has composed several irresistible piles of records that immediately give the impression of her prolific musical talent. She delves into relationship insight, combining a unique sound with her vocals to create her new single 'Long Drive' composed under her label The Singers Company.

Her music seems to pin down everyone listening to it with attention, and it sounds more like a personal epic that seamlessly brings various engulfing musical effects together. Her voice and the accompanying instrumentals create a scene that constantly impresses the audience. Jessica Sevier is a Canadian singer-songwriter whose music has been deemed mature beyond her years and that is very much evident in her record. 'Long Drive' is a journey to find a lost love and the singer has depicted her real emotions by choosing the most expressive words.

During her growing up years, the artist looked forward to John Mellencamp and Guns n Roses to gather her music inspiration and later she expanded her music knowledge by taking inspiration from Bruce Springsteen, Fleetwood Mac, and Bob Dylan. As a guitarist, singer, and pianist, she is supremely talented and versatile.
