

Oxford Summer Courses recognised as one of the UK's fastest growing businesses

Oxford Summer Courses has clinched the accolade of 50th fastest growing business in the UK in the 23rd annual Sunday Times Virgin Atlantic Fast Track 100.

Oxford, Dec 3, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Launched in 2010 by two school friends and Oxford graduates, Harry Hortyn and Robert Phipps, the business delivers courses designed to give pupils aged 9 to 24 an authentic educational experience steeped in the unique teaching traditions of Oxford University.

Welcoming students from 112 countries, Oxford Summer Courses generate a £9.2m turnover. Its courses take place during the summer months in Oxford, Cambridge, and London, as well as, Mumbai, Singapore, and Stanford in the USA.

Robert Phipps, co-founder, and CEO at Oxford Summer Courses said: "We're so pleased to have been recognized as one of the UK's fastest-growing businesses, for the second time. It underlines the importance of the UK's educational heritage on the global stage and the growing attraction it continues to hold for students of all ages."

As well as the Sunday Times Virgin Atlantic Fast Track 100 listing, Oxford Summer Courses was also ranked among the fastest-growing companies in the UK in the most recent FT1000 index.

Harry Hortyn, co-founder and CEO of Oxford Summer Courses said: “We regard this ranking as recognition of our dedicated and exceptional team of tutors, who truly inspire their students’ love of learning. We’re really excited about the new experiences we will be offering in 2020 and beyond to give students from across the world an authentic taste of the history and traditions of the UK’s most historic education institutions.”
