

Project Management Institute Mile Hi Symposium 2020

Trent Leopold presenting Business Analysis - Catalyst for Project Success

Denver, Dec 11, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - The Mile Hi chapter of the Project Management Institute (PMI) hosts the 22nd annual Mile Hi PMI Symposium Feb. 21, 2020 at the Colorado Convention Center in Denver, CO. More than 1,500 attendees are anticipated. The symposium's theme is Leadership in the Digital Age: The Changing Face of Project Management and features a lineup of world-class speakers. Trent Leopold presents the breakout session, Business Analysis – Catalyst for Project Success showcasing how business analysis serves as a catalyst for excellence, and project success. Attendees at Leopold's presentation receive their own packet of material including tools and techniques with relevant graphical representations to take with them for use in their practices. Leopold's presentation reveals scientific discoveries concerning human thought processes directly relating to effective business analysis and project management, for excellent project outcomes. The fun and educational presentation include participant interaction, question and answer, and several giveaways such as a box of gourmet chocolates, and a best-selling book. Leopold's presentation is suited for all business analysis and project management practitioners, including those with extensive experience and beginners.
