One client review says, "I wanted to take a quick moment to thank you again for the inspection of our home. The inspection was worth every penny I paid for – the IR technology is a must. The builder has already fixed every issue that was addressed in your report. The most significant finding was the insulation issue in the master bedroom. Let's just say now I have 10" of cellulose insulation over the MB and probably the best-insulated bedroom in St. Johns county. Thanks again and good luck with your business. I will definitely refer you guys to any new homeowner."
