

Altius Technologies Invites you for the Electrician's Exhibition – Elex Show

Farmington Hills, Jan 27, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - A must-visit trade-show for small to medium-sized electrical contractors, Elex Show London is a trade exhibition wherein innovative electrical products are demonstrated first-hand to the end-user. Participants can attend free technical seminars held to keep electricians up-to-date with the latest trends and technologies.

Altius Technologies is all set to be a part of the Elex Show London, 2020. The company offers innovative technology services in diverse categories like Product Content Management, Product Implementation Management (PIM), Digital Marketing Services, Software Services, and more.

“Attending such annual expos keeps us updated with the latest trends within the industry and gives us newer ideas for innovation. The best way to grow is to learn” says Marketing Head Arun Venkatraman of Altius Technologies.

Elex Show 2020 is going to showcase popular brands from the field of electrical and electronics; like Alpha Electronics, AT&T (GB) Ltd, Atlantic Heat, CK Tools, and many more. Participants will be able to interact with the experts of Altius Technologies, create valuable contacts, and meet the real buyers. In addition, visitors can enjoy great deals on the latest power tools.

Elex Show will be held across various locations across the UK starting from Alexandra Palace on 29th and 30th 2020, then later at Event city, Westpoint Arena, YEC Harrogate, Ricoh Arena, and Sandown Park.

Entry is free; however, you will need to visit the official site to complete your registration. Representatives from Altius Technologies are eager to meet the existing customers and connect with new ones. Our motto is to discuss interesting business ideas. “We will be glad to offer our eCommerce consultancy services to help our customers get better results,” says Business Head Ishwarya Sevugan of Altius Technologies.

Join us at the Elex Show 2020 to drive connections and generate better business opportunities.
