

Artist Harish Saluja Launched His Ecommerce Website Indigo Art Bags

Harish Saluja is a well known Indian artist living in Pittsburgh, U.S announced his new eCommerce venture Indigo Art Bags to sell handcrafted bags.

Pittsburgh, Jan 8, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Artist Harish Saluja who is famous for his miniature and abstract paintings launched his new venture under the name of Indigo Art Bags. Talking with the media he told that his art is inspired by music and the colors, emotions, and textures of the Indian classical music. The main motive to launch this portal - To spread Indian art in America.

The venture has an exclusive collection of handcrafted bags designed by Harish Saluja only. Crafted with miniature paintings these bags have different looks and feel that customers can merely find anywhere.

Talking about his journey Saluja told about his film making, painting, entrepreneurship, engineering, publishing, and writing skills.

Continuing the conversation company's spokesperson brief about the range of products they have approx 100 different designs each of these bags is 12 x 5 inches and contains an actual, original Miniature Painting (3x5 inches) starting from $249.00. The abstract paintings are made with oil and acrylic paints on card-stock paper.

Well, people of the Pittsburgh area excited to buy these bags from day one. Now it will be exciting to see the success of this newly launched venture.

Media Contact

Harish Saluja

Indigoartbags@gmail.com

Source : IndigoArtBags

See on IssueWire