

‘Chocolate Kiss’, a love story is premiering during the month of Love!

Detroit, Jan 7, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - On Saturday, February 1, 2020, The Shoe Lady Productions will be premiering its latest film “Chocolate Kiss” at 7:00 pm at the Bel Air Luxury Cinema in Detroit, Michigan. The film is co-produced by Chosen One Productions and Scattered Envisions of Detroit, Michigan. The independent production was exclusively filmed and produced in Detroit, with local actors. Further, the musical score and soundtrack also feature local musicians and songwriters.

The movie “Chocolate Kiss” is a romantic movie about Ashley Valentine losing her first love and learning to love again. After heartbreak, women often throw themselves into their jobs and careers but will Ashley allow herself to give and receive love one more time? With the current resurgence in Detroit’s filming industry, it is the perfect time for a feel-good and loving movie. This beautiful love story captures the essence of loss, belonging, passion, and the possibilities of true love.

The independent film showcases Detroit’s best theatrical and film production talent. “Chocolate Kiss” was co-written by Tonja Ayers, Richard Bass, and Mike Jeffers. The writers, armed with past successes, have come together to create a film that will resonate with its audience.

“Chocolate Kiss” is the third release by The Shoe Lady Productions whose first film “Stay in Your Place” premiered to in sold-out theaters regionally; and whose second film “TEN” was nominated and selected for multiple film festivals nationally and internationally. After the premiere, “Chocolate Kiss” will have several national screenings before going to global distribution on multiple digital platforms.

The talented cast includes Kristin Clarke who landed her first role on Comedy Central’s “Detroiters” in 2017, followed by her role in the feature film “First Lady” in 2018, “Deceitful Passions” in 2019 and now her first leading role in Chocolate Kiss. Starring alongside her is Edward Donaldson whose musical roots and education at Detroit’s own School for Performing Arts helped to root him in the field of entertainment. Mr. Donaldson is one gentle giant who is comfortable rocking a microphone to acting onstage in a theatrical performance.

“Chocolate Kiss” was directed by Melissa Talbot and co-directed by Mike Jeffers. For more info, please contact Tonja Ayers at (248) 973-7463 or email info@theshoelady.biz. Tickets and movie trailer are both available at www.ChocolateKissTheMovie.com.
