

Dave.AI joins NVIDIA Inception Program

Bengaluru, Jan 2, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Dave.AI (Sociograph Solutions Private Limited) today announced it has joined the NVIDIA Inception program, a virtual accelerator designed to nurture cutting-edge AI startups who are revolutionizing industries.

Dave.AI is an autonomous, artificial intelligence (AI) platform that can augment a human salesperson in a variety of different sales scenarios. Dave.AI provides powerful APIs and SDKs which can transform traditional retail spaces into Dave.AI Customer Experience Centers.

“We are excited to join the NVIDIA Inception program, as the benefits will enable us to continue product testing with the latest generation of NVIDIA GPUs,” said Dr. Ananthakrishnan Gopal, Dave.AI co-founder and CTO. The Dave.AI team is soon planning to launch their next-generation platform, Dave 2.0, a conversationally intelligent virtual sales avatar. NVIDIA GPUs will provide the required compute infrastructure for the Dave 2.0 deployments, both in the cloud and at the node.

NVIDIA's Inception program is a virtual accelerator program that helps startups during critical stages of product development, prototyping and deployment. Every Inception member gets a custom set of ongoing benefits, from NVIDIA Deep Learning Institute credits, marketing support and hardware technology discounts enabling early-stage startups with fundamental tools to help them grow.
