G Suite FREE promo codes and the benefits of the tool for business

Bilbao, Jan 12, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - GSuite is a tool that helps to improve the productivity of the company and brings many benefits. In addition, thanks to the promotion that they have in Desamark you will be able to try a few days of G Suite for FREE and if you decide to acquire it they also have promotional codes G Suite of 20% discount during the first year.

GSuite benefits to improve the company's productivity

- Own domain in the email: You can get a business email to give a professional look to business and make customers trust you more.
- Access from anywhere: You can access GSuite from anywhere you have an Internet connection because it is hosted in the cloud.
- 24/7 Support: With GSuite, there is 24/7 customer support via email, phone, and chat.
- Additional security: With document management control of who makes changes and 2-step verification you have an important security layer that can be applied to all users, if the administrator decides to do so.
- Storage space: G Suite is a cloud-based platform, and comes with more storage for photos, files, documents and emails. The default storage for free Gmail accounts is 15GB. For G Suite Basic, it's 30GB per user. Unlike the free Google Account, which has limited storage, upgrading allows you to store as much detail as you want.
