

Hunter Dane Announces The Love Tape EP

For those who need company on Valentine's Day

San Bruno, Feb 1, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Bay Area Artist, Hunter Dane is announcing “The Love Tape,” an EP releasing on February 14th, 2020. The EP consists of 4 tracks made for those having a lonely Valentine’s Day themselves. One of the songs, BEsmooth, was performed as an unreleased track during his last show in front of Hunter’s ex-girlfriend, shocking the crowd heavily. It also features SavKo, a female R&B singer who brings an intimate tone that’ll play your heart a certain way.

On January 24th, he started the year off with releasing a NEW R&B single, “Hurt Inside,” a song that reflects on Hunter’s previous relationship and his upfront perspective on time. Fans and new listeners were constantly messaging Hunter, telling him how much the song spoke to them as soon as the song had released. Listen to Hurt Inside here: <http://smarturl.it/lbe-hurtinside>

Since his last albums, “Gone Mad.” and “Y & R,” there has been anticipation for the next album. Hunter wants to confirm that an album is in fact being made and he also wants to let everyone know that this is “the finale of the trilogy.”

If you would like more information about The Love Tape - EP or any upcoming music, stay updated on Hunter Dane's Instagram: @hunterdane650

Media Contact

Lost Brothers Entertainment

lbentertainment650@gmail.com

6507973290

Source : Hunter Dane

See on IssueWire