Hayward, Jan 10, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - A new player has joined the social networking world and people are going to love it! Lugelo, a web and mobile-based online journal was recently launched in the market. This online diary platform is live now and allows users to create their own private journals, blogs, biographies, scrapbooks and stories. This CA-based tech startup is accessible to all across the world.

Lugelo was launched keeping in mind users who wanted to conserve their finest memories in the most secure and private way. It's a completely 'secure platform' to experiment with your writing skills and get through the first draft. Users can always create a blog and write drafts too. As for the technical know-how of this social platform, the webmasters have very beautifully explained how to use lugelo here.

"When we thought of Lugelo, we had a clear idea that there must be a platform that lets internet users save their moments in the form of text, images, videos, GIF or so one. This is the sole reason for Lugelo's existence. Every parents, professionals or individual have a variety of moments or times which they want to keep private or public which later on become the best memories of their lifetime. Our platform is letting them enjoy and store those beautiful and precious moments in the form of digital and social networking." said Musa Mawanda, CEO, Lugelo.

Lugelo has been designed and developed to cater to people of all ages and genders all over the world. Individuals have already started using the platform as their online journals for their respective needs. In short, Lugelo is for everyone.

This online journaling platform has some really exciting features, that sets it apart from its competitors. Below are a few -

- Lugelo's speech-to-text voice recognition feature makes it easy to write titles and descriptions for your story.
- With their comprehensive sharing options, users can keep their stories public, open to collaborations and private too.
- They can track their preferred story writers, authors and poets and follow their content.
- Users can collaborate with friends and family while creating live or old stories.
- Users can make their story more expressive by importing photos, videos, notes, SMS etc. directly into their story.

Future Plans

Lugelo aims to become the most secure platform for online diary and journal users in the next three months. There is a specially designed module for business and professionals that will go live in the next 2 months. These features will help brands get the required exposure and tools to promote themselves.
