

Printed Cotton Fabric Collection Launched by Freedom Tree

Mumbai, Jan 13, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Mumbai based online home furnishing and home decor store, Freedom Tree launched it's printed cotton fabric collection for the Indian households. Since 2010 this Mumbai based design studio provides fabric designs, furniture products and home decor items selling online.

Freedom Tree's latest printed cotton fabric collection is made from the pure cotton pieces. This cotton fabric is using for the making of curtains, cushion covers, bed covers, upholstery for sofa and chairs. The exclusivity of this Freedom Tree's cotton fabric collection is the design and every design of the collection is inspired by nature. And also this collection is available in multiple colours such as red, blue, white, green, pink and more. The most of fabric prints are inspired from the south Indian. Each and every design is handcrafted by the designer team of the Freedom Tree. Freedom Tree every year launched 3 collections for its customers to provide a variety of options to satisfy its loyal customers. You can explore their new and fresh printed cotton fabric collection at Freedom Tree.

Freedom Tree's designer team aiming to provide new designs that are elegant and fresh in nature. Freedom Tree's design director Latika Khosla said 'colours are universal languages, it transcends speech, transcend written script and you can communicate through colours'.

Media Contact

Jay Bhagat

freedomtree.marketing@gmail.com

Bandra Breeze, Plot no. 57/A, 23rd-28th Road, Bandra (W) Mumbai 400050, India

Source : Freedom Tree

See on IssueWire

