

R.u.D.e Hits the Music Scene with their Exacting and Engaging Piece of Rap Music ‘The Most’

R.u.D.e treats their fans with a fantastic hip-hop video ‘The Most’ that highlights the duo’s superb take on the genre as they introduce their distinctive rap style.

Humboldt County, Dec 31, 1969 (IssueWire.com) - The music industry always celebrates the hip-hop music and the recent entry into the genre is R.u.D.e. The way this social duo has described their artistry in form of a catchy musical number has caught the attention of all. Their recent music video is completely dope where both the artists, artist/producer Traac and artist/songwriter Asaad the Artiz have done an incredible hip-hop rap in their distinctive style. By far, they are the best which the hip-hop industry could have welcomed this year. Excellent production, clear rhymes, and a beat box that sounds completely infectious, everything has been packed with style to highlight the duos fantastic musical artwork. Recently they have blown the scene with their hard-hitting rap work shown beautifully in ‘The Most’.

The way both the artists of R.u.D.e have shown their style distinctively in the record is truly commendable. Starting from the very first beat they owned the stage with their presence. Both of them have their style and sound which anyone listening to them can easily understand. The rhyming strategy along with the impactful instrumental backdrop describes how well these guys have mastered the skill of flawless rapping. ‘The Most’ - it’s no doubt a standout track from their end which sounds fresh and exciting, with a unique blend of music, and comes from their album ENTITLED. This album is certainly one of the greatest of this year’s hip-hop hits. Both the artists have their unique style and sound and no one out shadows the other, for both have a different approach to the genre. Talking of the visual engagement, both Traac and Asaad the Artiz groove to the upbeat music and their energy remains high throughout. During the beginning of the video, a beautiful lady accompanies the duo who also contributes her rhythmic voice at par with one of the artists.

Gawd-Given Music is the label under which this record has been composed and impresses the audience with its brilliant beats and beautifully structured verses which have been combined with witty metaphors for smooth delivery. R.u.D.e, the rap duo is based out of Humboldt County, California and both the artists introduce a fresh brand of lyricism and style in the song that distinguishes them from the others.
