

State Express Launched Most Nominal Buddhist Pilgrimage Tours to India

New Delhi, Jan 20, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Established in the year 1980, State Express has achieved a niche in tours and travel industry, State Express announces Buddhist pilgrimage tours India suitable to all kinds of devotees. The minimum number of days needed for the Buddhist tours are three-four days, and it may exceed to any extent.

These Buddhist tour packages are designed for the pilgrims who intend to follow the footmarks of Lord Buddha from beginning to end, in short, the tours cover it all.

The starting points associated with the Buddhist tours depend on the destinations the travelers intend to visit. The point may be Delhi, Varanasi, or Kolkata accordingly. Travelers will then be driven to the following destinations as per the planned Buddhist tour packages. Most of the tour plans will include Sravasti, Lumbini, Kushinagar, Sarnath, Bodhgaya, Rajgir, Nalanda, and Vaishali.

“The spots related to important life events of Buddha are must to be witnesses during the Buddhist pilgrimage tours,” says the company executive. The trip plans can be customized as well, if any such demand arises.”

The tours will be of all types, such as Ladakh Buddhist sites, Orissa Buddhist sites, Sikkim Buddhist sites, as well as, the places associated with Lord Buddha; the travelers can pick the most suitable travel itinerary for themselves. Also, the destinations will depend on the number of days the pilgrims may invest while traveling. As per the travelers’ budget plans, the transportation can be done via luxury buses, travelers, luxury cars, or ordinary buses.

Also, State Express avails travelers with tours that comprise Buddhist festivals as well. These festivals are Buddhist New Year, and Vesak. The travelers who seek to soak the Buddhist New Year vibes, can plan to travel to Burma, Cambodia, Thailand, Sri Lanka, and Lao. The Buddhist New Year begins from the very first full-moon in the month of April that goes for three days. On the other hand, Vesak is a festivity that celebrates Lord Buddha’s birthday. All the important life events of Buddha, i.e., birth, enlightenment, as well as, death are celebrated in a day only. Vesak is also celebrated in the very first full-moon in the month of May.

The Buddhist circuit is considered as an essential destination for pilgrims who adore Lord Buddha and his lessons. These trips by State Express India are designed for the devotees who intend to spend time understanding Buddhism history, religion, as well as, culture. Millions of Lord Buddha followers and devotees reside throughout the world, and they practice distinct Buddhism branches, such as Vajrayana, Mahayana, Hinayana, Sahajayana, and Tantrayana.

The tours arranged by State Express comprise best solutions for all sorts of followers. The travelers who follow the East Asian Buddhism, prefer to travel to Japan, China, South Korea, Vietnam, and Singapore.

About the Company

State Express has been an epitome of comfort, and perfection for the travelers who intend to visit to distinct places. The company holds considerable expertise when it comes to planning spiritual, and adventurous tours. The company proposes specialized travel plans that target to the destinations, Sri Lanka, Maldives, Bhutan, India, and Nepal. State Express avails its clients with full-fledged customized, as well as, pre-decided itinerary plans also.

In recognition of the commitment to excellence, State Express is also the recipient of several awards from industry associations, industry publications and the Government of India.

Media Contact

State Express

info@statexp.in 01147674000

1st Floor, Bhanot House, 17, Community Centre, Gulmohar Enclave Extension, New Delhi, 110049

Source : State Express

See on IssueWire