

UnfoldU Learning Platform is here to help parents as well as students- Harish Bajaj (UnfoldU)

India has almost 260 million school-going students. But not all students are fortunate enough to get a quality education. Here are some advantages explained by Harish Bajaj for every student as well as parents.

Rupnagar, Jan 15, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - The online education platforms are growing each day, and it is set to become $1.96 Billion by 2021. UnfoldU being one of the leading online learning platforms, is of the view that the online mode of learning is helping students as well as the parents. According to Harish Bajaj, who is the chairman and founder of the UnfoldU app, the online mode of learning is helping the parents and students alike. He believes that parents need not worry about the educational requirements of their kids since online learning platforms are offering unlimited educational material at a minimum cost. In addition to this, the financial burden on the parents is also reduced as they don't have to spend a single penny for the tuition fee.

India has more than 260 million school-going children, and not all of them can afford good quality education. But with platforms like UnfoldU, all kinds of students, irrespective of the financial status of their parents, can get a good quality education. Nowadays, every house has a smartphone, and the affordable data is almost a boon to students. The UnfoldU app that is available in Google Playstore can be downloaded in all kinds of smartphones, and students can learn at the comfort of their home.

Harish Bajaj, the founder of UnfoldU, said that -” with our team of experienced teachers and educators, we are providing 24*7 e-learning solutions at almost no cost to the students. The learning method we follow can be easily understood even by a beginner. The study material provided by us is easily understandable, and students won’t need any external help. We have seen the educational growth curve of hundreds of students going upwards in just a few years of our service. Today every student wants to learn the concepts and not just cram up the facts. Thus, we make content in such a way that students get engrossed in the videos and animated explanations.

His further opines that most of the study material available in the market are such that only intelligent students would understand it. But with UnfoldU, all levels of students can understand the topics. In addition to it, most online education providers fulfill the educational requirement of only CBSE board students. But, the UnfoldU app caters to the needs of the all-state boards as well as CBSE and ICSE. At UnfoldU, we are the online platform offering good quality interactive material for Hindi medium as well as English medium students.

Answering the question of how UnfoldU can help the parents, He replied, “with the availability of online mode of education, the financial burden on the parents is reduced.”. He also added that his father, Mr. Ramchandra Bajaj, always envisioned India where every student was educated, and every student should have the right to affordable and quality education”. To fulfill my father’s dream of education for all, I started UnfoldU so that every student in India can have access to good quality education at an affordable cost. In addition to this, the UnfoldU app also provides a unique opportunity to the parents by which the parents can earn by generating referrals and making sales. Generating a referral means, referring the UnfoldU app to others will give you some referral points that can be redeemed and used for your kids’ future education. There is no company in the market that had thought of the parents. Moreover, the educational cost of UnfoldU is very affordable; thus, it is a double bonanza for the parents added Harish Bajaj.

About UnfoldU:
