

Cynthia Butler, Ph.D., a Psychologist with Psychology Spirituality Center

Get to know Dr. Cynthia Butler, who serves patients in Augusta, Georgia.

New York City, Feb 18, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - As a licensed psychologist, Dr. Butler thinks no problem is too large to overcome and that everyone can change the world! For more than 20 years, she has been helping her neighbors in Augusta, Georgia with issues regarding mental health at her private practice, Psychology Spirituality Center.

Realizing that it can be difficult to ask for help with mental health, she provides a safe, caring environment where she offers psychological services in the fields of child development, adult attention deficit disorders, anxiety, depression, and more. She also specializes in veterans issues, including post-traumatic stress disorder.

With an unwavering commitment to her specialty, Dr. Butler holds a Doctor of Psychology degree, which is a professional doctoral degree intended to prepare graduates for clinical practice and leadership roles in mental health. Earning the degree was originally completed through one of two established training models for clinical psychology.

Psychology is the science of behavior and mind. It includes the study of conscious and unconscious phenomena, as well as feeling and thought. It is an academic discipline of immense scope. Psychologists assess, diagnose, and treat the psychological problems and behavioral dysfunctions resulting from, or related to, physical and mental health. In addition, they play a major role in the promotion of healthy behavior, preventing diseases and improving patients' quality of life.
