Get to know Neurologist Dr. Delvis A. Celdran, who serves patients in Port St. Lucie, Florida.

New York City, Feb 13, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Board-certified neurologist, Dr. Celdran, has over two decades of experience in his field. He sees patients at his private practice in Port St. Lucie, Florida, where his goal is to serve the community with honesty, integrity, and responsibility in order to achieve outstanding medical care.

The doctor's medical interests include multiple sclerosis, peripheral nerve disorder, motor neuron disease, neuromuscular disorder, myopathy, neurodegenerative disease, dementia, Parkinson's disease, epilepsy, headaches, spine disorder, stroke, and all other general neurological conditions. Professionally, he has been associated with Florida Atlantic University, and he has served as the Director of the Stroke Center at Lawnwood Regional Medical Center in Fort Pierce, Florida.

Born in Ranchuelo, Cuba in 1969, Dr. Celdran was born to a family with a medical tradition, from whom he learned the value of dedication, sacrifice, and humbleness. Dedicating himself to his studies, he graduated with his medical degree from the Higher Institute of Medical Science of Villa Clara, Cuba in 1993. He then went on to complete his residency in internal medicine at Hospital Damas in Ponce, Puerto Rico, after which he relocated to the United States to complete his residency in neurology at Louisiana State University, where he served as a Chief Resident.

In 2005, he relocated to the Treasure Coast area in Florida after Hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans, and has been serving as a neurologist in solo practice since then. In addition to being a Fellow of the American Academy of Neurology, he is board-certified in neurology by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, a not-for-profit corporation dedicated to promoting high-quality patient care for the public through the initial and continuing certification of psychiatrists and neurologists.

Neurology is a branch of medicine dealing with disorders of the nervous system. Neurologists are licensed medical specialists who diagnose and treat disorders that affect the brain, spinal cord, nerves, and muscles of patients. They examine a patient's mental and physical status, conduct medical tests and scans, and evaluate the results to diagnose and treat the patient.

For his extensive expertise in the field of neurology, Dr. Celdran has been honored with the recognition of achieving the highest quality in patient care in 2009, Florida's Best Physicians by Patients' Choice Award in 2010, America's Top Physicians in 2011, Most Compassionate Doctor Award in 2012, Reader's Choice Award as Best Doctor-Neurology/Neurologist by Hometown News in 2013, America's Most Honored Professionals in 2016, Top Doctors of America Honors and Patient's choice award in 2019, and Top Neurologist in 2020.
