New York City, Feb 3, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - As a board-certified cardiologist, Dr. Mariano specializes in many aspects of his field, including cardiac rehabilitation, cardiovascular computed tomography, nuclear cardiology, and preventive cardiology. He practices at Bart De Gregorio, MD, LLC in Glen Ridge, New Jersey.

At Bart De Gregorio, MD, LLC, cardiac care goes beyond offering superior techniques delivered by board-certified doctors. It means providing care that is professional, considerate, and kind. When a patient is concerned about high cholesterol, coronary artery disease, an irregular heartbeat, or any other heart or vascular condition, they deserve the very best treatment, and they can find it close to home.

Back in the early days of his academic career, Dr. Mariano completed his undergraduate degree at Yale University where he graduated with a degree in Molecular Biology in 1995. He earned his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the Nova Southeastern University College of Osteopathic Medicine in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. He then went on to complete his residency and fellowship at St. Michael's Medical Center in Newark, New Jersey.

With regard to the doctor's noteworthy accomplishments, he is board-certified in cardiovascular disease by the American Board of Internal Medicine, which is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world. He also holds certifications in cardiovascular computed tomography and nuclear cardiology.

Cardiology is a branch of medicine that deals with the disorders of the heart, as well as some parts of the circulatory system. The field includes medical diagnosis and treatment of congenital heart defects, coronary artery disease, heart failure, valvular heart disease, and electrophysiology. Cardiologists are doctors who diagnose, assess, and treat patients with diseases and defects of the heart and blood vessels (the cardiovascular system).

In addition to English, Dr. Mariano speaks Italian.
