

Feathered Quill Book Awards 2020 Winners

Feathered Quill Book Reviews Announces Winners of 2020 Annual Award Program

Amherst Center, Feb 4, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Started in 2008 by a small group of dedicated, enthusiastic reviewers, Feathered Quill has become one of the preeminent online review sites. In the summer of 2013, it opened submissions for the first annual book award program, and since that time, the award program has grown substantially. This year, the number of award nominations more than doubled, and last year also saw a substantial increase over the previous year. Truly an international contest, nominations came from as far away as New Zealand, Hong Kong, and Scotland.

New this year was the addition of Finalist Placings. Instead of awarding a certain number of books per category the Finalist classification, these books were selected by high scores. So while some categories had several Finalists, others had none.

When submissions closed on December 15, 2019, the judges had the daunting task of reading hundreds of excellent books and trying to decide the best of the best. Every book was read, judged, and often it was a mere point or two that separated the winners from the 'almost won' books. Included with each book's scoring are "Judges' Comments" which were provided for all entrants - an excellent way for winners to get promotional quotes for marketing as well as a way for all authors to get feedback on their books.

Feathered Quill also offered numerous additional awards, sponsored by various publishing-related companies, valued between $100 and $1000. For a complete list of winners, please visit the award page, featheredquill.com/2020-winners/
