

FIDU PROPERTIES Nominated as one of EMAAR'S Top Real Estate Companies for 2020

Dubai, Feb 18, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - FIDU Properties, one of the most prominent real estate brokerages based out of Dubai and China, has recently been nominated among the top 5 real estate agencies by the major global developer, Emaar. FIDU has previously received recognition of similar nature, being named amid the top 10 brokerage firms in 2018 and 2019 and since its entry to the UAE market in 2016, the sustainable and ever-growing organization is now considered the top Chinese real estate brokerage in Dubai.

After successful roadshows across the globe in 2019, rapid growth and triumph became the theme of 2019 for FIDU properties, pushing the ever-growing organization to where it is today. 2019 also saw FIDU's internal corporate culture become a key catalyst to this nomination, one which promotes growth and fosters innovation. The powerhouse real estate brokerage prides itself on never-ending efforts to better serve its clients, in a world that is increasingly interconnected and demanding of projects boasting the greatest quality.

'FIDU Properties has once again been recognized as one of the fastest rising and most sustainable real estate companies in the world. In recent years, our projects in Dubai have been ever-growing in size due to our reputation as the leading Chinese real estate developer in the region. In turn, Chinese purchasing power grows, automatically impacting the UAE economy in an immensely positive way through the creation of new business opportunities. We are delighted that our efforts and processes over the years have been recognized by such a large scale and innovative organization like Emaar.' - Mr. Nazish Khan, COO of FIDU Properties
