

Gospel Singer Publishes New Inspirational Magazine

"Amazed"

Trenton, Mar 1, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - After writing articles for other prominent magazines for many years, Grammy Award-winning songwriter/Gospel songstress, Lady Peachena, has stepped out on faith and launched her own quarterly inspirational magazine “AMAZED.” She expects her one-of-a-kind magazine to become the #1 informational source for Gospel music fans all over the world.

“AMAZED” will shine the spotlight on popular Gospel artists such as Bishop Hezekiah Walker, Cece Winans, Rev. Shirley Caesar, and others, as well as Gospel artists such as The Great Divas of Gospel, The Late Show’s Gospel Choir, and others, who have been toiling in the Gospel vineyard a long time without getting much exposure to the Gospel community. There will also be articles about celebrities (non-gospel artists) who have made significant contributions to Gospel music in their own way as well as great moments in African American history.

“I have so much knowledge about the music business that I’d like to share,” revealed Lady Peachena. “Oprah has been my inspiration for a long time and since she publishes her own magazine, so can I.” Stay up-to-date on the latest news in Gospel music! This uplifting, informational magazine can be ordered now at www.blurb.com/b/9935193

Lady Peachena is also the founder of the famed Late Show’s Gospel Choir of whom she organized for CBS TV’S “LATE SHOW” twenty-five years ago and they’re still performing together.
