District of Columbia, Feb 28, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - We all know that losing a loved one is one of the hardest things we will ever have to face. But, imagine being the only child of an adopted mother with no biological family to lean on when God calls her home. October 21, 2018, the day that the life Kinyatta once knew would forever be changed, leaving her to now embrace a new perspective on earth, alone.

In this memoir, 30 Days...Surviving the Trauma and Unexpected Loss of a Single Parent as an Only Child, Kinyatta reflects on a 30-day period that changed the course of the rest of her life. She'll uncover some of her deepest pain, greatest joys, unspeakable trauma, and how she allowed love to heal.
