Anyone who has experienced a Groove Odyssey party either in London or Ibiza will tell you it's all about unadulterated dance music, pure and simple. The two pioneering minds behind the brand, twin DJs Bobby & Steve are legendary names in the London club scene.

With a 35-year long career that stretches over multiple residencies in venues Ministry of Sound, Soho Theatre, El Divino and Es Paradis, each successful season has been a step towards the acclaimed status they hold today. Avid radio listeners may know them from their Kiss FM shows, where the pair have proven themselves to be true connoisseurs of the DJing arts.

Their selections in all forms of DJ booth are hotbeds of exclusives and remixes from their deep knowledge of uplifting four to the floor jams. Over the course of their prestigious career, they have earned themselves the title of champions of the soulful house sound.

With their in-depth mastery, illustrious work and musical talent, it seemed prime time at the beginning of the new decade for the pair to drop some fresh new music.

The result is their much-anticipated debut artist album Let's Stand Together is a call to action for music lovers all over the world. Track after track is a testament to the infectious positivity that the brothers have brought to every musical venture. Furthermore, It contains collaborations from artists that have provided the vocals on tracks that have defined more than one generation.

Esteemed artists featuring on the album include; Byron Stingily, Barbara Tucker, Johnnie Fiori, Michelle John, Leroy Burgess, Jean Carne, Lifford, Stephanie Cooke, Gwen Yvette, Duane Harden, Peppe Citarella and Duane Harden. Each one brings a distinctive element to the 15 track creation, making the album a more than a pleasurable listening experience.

Bobby & Steve have a deep appreciation of how music can feed the soul and 'Let's Stand Together' offers a glimpse into the hearts and minds of the twins, offering a musical journey that will lift your spirits, fill your hearts and move your feet.

Whilst for some just being world-renowned DJs and producers is enough, the brothers have gone above and beyond in their pursuits to achieve new heights. Their record label and event Groove

Odyssey celebrated 10 years in 2019, a notably huge feat to achieve in the electronic music industry.

Big spinners like David Morales, Louie Vega, Dimitri from Paris, Terry Hunter, Kerri Chandler, Kings of House and Dennis Ferrer have all featured on GO party line-ups in the past. Their Groove Odyssey Sessions show on HouseFm.net still dominates the 10.00 pm -12.00 am slot with a host of the finest guests in the world's house music arena.

Groove Odyssey returns to the paradisiacal island of Ibiza on Wednesday 13th May for their summer weekend party extravaganza. Taking over numerous White isle clubbing hotspots, sun-kissed ravers can enjoy the likes of Joey Negro, Nightmares On Wax, John Morales, Terry Hunter, Stacy Kidd and many more spinning tunes over the course of this mini-festival, which lasts until Monday 18th May.

Bobby & Steve have been the heart of some of the best parties and biggest tracks of the last twenty years. There is no doubt that the brothers have created a timeless legacy and a certainty that they will go from strength to strength in preaching the gospel of soulful house for years to come.
