Get to know Licensed Clinical Social Worker Jaime M. Braid, who serves patients in Glassboro, New Jersey.

New York City, Feb 25, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Jaime, a licensed clinical social worker, attributes her successful career to her peers, support from her family, her education, and her amazing staff. Currently, she practices at Inspira Health Center Glassboro in New Jersey.

Inspira Health is a charitable nonprofit health care organization serving communities across southern New Jersey. The network, which traces its roots to 1899, comprises three hospitals, a comprehensive cancer center, several multi-specialty health centers, and a total of more than 150 access points. These include urgent care; outpatient imaging and rehabilitation; numerous specialty centers, including sleep medicine, cardiac testing, digestive health, and wound care; home care and hospice; and more than 30 primary and specialty physician practices in Gloucester, Cumberland, Salem, and Camden counties. Inspira's multidisciplinary treatment teams deliver compassionate and supportive care in an environment that respects each patient's dignity, independence, and unique personal needs.

After earning her Bachelor of Science (BS) degree from Temple University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 2004, Jaime went on to obtain her Master of Social Work (MSW) degree from Rutgers University in New Jersey in 2007.

Committed to expanding her knowledge base and skills, she remains a member of the National Association of School Nurses.

A licensed clinical social worker (LCSW) works with patients in order to help them deal with issues involving mental and emotional health. There are a wide variety of specializations the LCSW can focus on, including mental health issues, substance abuse, public health, school social work, medical social work, marriage counseling or children and family therapy.

In her spare time, Jaime enjoys swimming and watching hockey. Her favorite professional publications are Nephrology News & Issues and Nephrology, Journal.
