

Lighthouse Self Storage & Move For Hunger Partner For Spring Food Drive

Florida storage provider will collect select food items to benefit local food banks

Cooper City, Feb 26, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Lighthouse Self Storage, a regional self-storage provider serving Florida and California markets, is partnering with national non-profit Move for Hunger in their mission to combat food waste and fight hunger in Florida communities this spring.

The storage provider will serve as a drop-off point for accepted food donations between April 6th and April 10th at their four properties in Florida. All donations will benefit food banks in the surrounding areas. Residents of the communities are encouraged to donate.

When: April 6th - April 10th, 2020

9 am - 6 pm

Where:

2909 S Military Trail

West Palm Beach, FL 33415

11060 Griffin Road

Cooper City, FL 33328

1121 E. Commercial Blvd.

Oakland Park, FL 33334

701 S. Homestead Blvd.

Homestead, FL 33030

"Our team is very excited to partner with Move for Hunger and designate available storage space to such an important cause in the community," said Monica LaFerla, Marketing Manager at Lighthouse-Self Storage. "We are optimistic we'll collect a significant amount of donations and look forward to a long, prosperous partnership with this great charity."

Suggested donations are limited to unopened, unexpired non-perishable items, such as canned goods, soups, cereal, canned meats or peanut butter.
