

Prominence Support is The Best Appliance Insurance Company in The Uk

Best Appliance Insurance Company

Manchester, Feb 19, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - When it is about choosing the best appliance insurance for your household appliances, one name that leads from the front in the UK market is Prominence Support. The company is the best appliance insurance company in the country offering multi-appliance insurance cover that covers almost 8 essential and electrical appliances in your homes.

Appliance insurance from Prominence Support insures appliances against mechanical snags, electrical breakdowns, and damages caused by accidents. The multi-appliance scheme is one of the most cost-effective insurance covers being provided by the company that covers each of the eight appliances at less than £24 per appliance. The list of appliances that can get covered under this scheme can be chosen by the homeowner from a comprehensive list of appliances.

The other distinct feature of home appliance insurance offered by the company include inclusions of the repair costs and replacement costs in the premium payment. There is no maximum limit to the number of calls and claims though the limit per claim is £500. What makes the company stand out in the appliance insurance market is its quality of services. The company gets your appliance inspected and repaired by a highly qualified team of technicians and engineers with flawless support and speedy repair services. All the labour costs and the cost of repairing the appliance is included in the premium payment. For appliances that cannot be guaranteed normal functioning after repair or the repair is going to be a costly affair vis-à-vis replacement, Prominence Support offers replacement.

The company covers almost all kinds of expensive and smart appliances in your kitchen and home. There are exclusive appliance insurance covers for TV that include LCD, LED and Plasma TV; cookers, dishwashers, freezers, fridge, fridge-freezer, gas-electric hobs, washing machine and tumbler dryer. With easy payment options that range from a monthly payment to quarterly and annual payments, there is a suitable scheme for every customer out there.

Being one of the best appliance insurance company in the UK, Prominence Support can be contacted via the toll-free number 03300885768 or alternately can be contacted via Live Chat facility at the official website of the company. A company spokesperson informed us that, "we work with all the major international brands. Our customers enjoy the advantage of great pricing and have the benefit of their appliance being checked by the best professionals in the industry. There are many attractions for our customers that help them save well without multi appliance insurance scheme and our annual payment scheme".
