

Shield Republic launches Hold the Line fundraiser for fallen Canadian County Officer

American lifestyle brand to donate net proceeds of apparel fundraiser to family of Lieutenant Shirley Lanning

Raleigh, Feb 19, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - American lifestyle brand Shield Republic announced today a new Hold the Line apparel fundraiser honoring a fallen officer serving in Canadian County, Oklahoma.

Lieutenant Shirley Lanning was killed in the line of duty in a head-on collision on the Northwest Expressway near the Kilpatrick Turnpike in Oklahoma City on February 14. Lt. Lanning had served in law enforcement, most recently with the Canadian County Sheriff's Office, for three decades.

Net proceeds of funds raised through the sale of honorary t-shirts, hoodies, long-sleeved shirts, and ladies' tank tops will go to Lt. Lanning's family. All items sold through the Hold the Line fundraiser honoring Lt. Lanning were designed, printed, and shipped in the USA.

"In the wake of this tragic loss, we want to immortalize the service and sacrifice of Lt. Lanning through our Hold the Line apparel fundraiser," said Charlie Romero, spokesperson for the Shield Republic. "Our thoughts are with Lt. Lanning's loved ones and the whole team at the Canadian County Sheriff's Office during this difficult time."
