

A Vision and Smart Ideas Lead Tarak Doddala Towards HEORwel Projects

India's One of It's Kind Agriculture Technology Company and Farm Management Services

Hyderabad, Mar 5, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - "Be who you are, but aspire to be better." HEORwel – All Best Plantations, founder Tarak Doddala, has worked his way up the ladder by winning over the odds to transform his brainchild into reality. HEORwel Projects is an esteemed venture built on the concept of giving back to nature. With projects like farm and plot management, Tarak, along with his like-minded group of individuals, are on a voyage to bring in greenery solutions to whoever seeks it and simultaneously educate others on the benefits of ecosystem balance, recycling, and other environmental friendly factors.

Tarak has treaded his way to this destination by continuously learning throughout his journey. Apart from being the founder of HEORwel projects, Tarak is also a Director for STAR Homeopathy and Ayurveda, and Co-Founder of SWAAS Natural Products, both of which deal with the natural ways of health and wellness. He also ventured into Pharmaceuticals Retail outlets through Galaxy Pharmacy and into the restaurant business with Ananadana Restaurants.

Early 2010, A humble person who has started his career as an IT Admin with Primus Global Technologies and Zen Quality Assurance Pvt Ltd, moved on to become as Sr. IT Admin with OM IT Solutions Pvt Ltd. The establishment of being a Founder initiated with Kanitom Technologies Pvt Ltd. After a while, he worked as Director at Strategies and Business Development with U& Me Communications.

By then, the seed of starting a company that could serve the mother earth, and help individuals who are interested in converting their lands into greener pastures was implanted. Although the inception of HEORwel took after establishing SWAAS Products as Co-founder, the passion for stabilizing the idea was stronger than any.

Tarak always wanted to be a driving example for all those dreamers/ideations that passions can be achieved with proper planning and hard work.
