New Delhi, Mar 9, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - A Fiction Novel on self-help and motivation named HACKER 404 Error Happiness not Found (stylized as H4CK3R) was launched in Bangalore, India. It is the debut Novel by Mr. Bhanu Srivastav, e-Learning Team Lead, Syndicate Bank and co-authored by Ms. Bindu Mallikarjuna (from eLearning Department) of the bank. The book was launched by Mr. Sathish Kamath, GM (HR), Syndicate Bank, Mr. Laxmikant Srivastava, DGM (HR) & Mrs. Shaila Jayasheela, DGM (HR) at Bank's Corporate Office, Bengaluru.

Royalty proceeds from this novel will be donated as charity to Childline India and The Akshaya Patra Foundation in equal ratio.

“This book is based on a fictional story of the world's biggest loser - Surya, who lost the battle of his life. His battle included how he chose to end his life and how he bounced back to become India's Biggest Business Tycoon. The story contains several ups and downs of Surya which teaches us that we are not alone in this world with pain, how we bounce back is what matters the most. How a college hacker who was famous for small cyber-attacks, hacked something which was never meant to hack and thereafter his life took a turn and changed everything,” said Mr. Bhanu Srivastav, Author of the book at the launch event.

“It is my privilege to be associated with a book that not only tells a strong narrative but also is connected with such a noble cause under which they are donating all the royalty earned by the book's sales to Childline India and The Akshaya Patra Foundation,” said Mr. Shiv Ram Mishra, Chief Manager (HR), Syndicate Bank at the launch event.

HACKER | 404 Error, Happiness not found, which has student partner from IIT Chennai, IIT Delhi, IIT Patna, IIM Bangalore, NIT Hamirpur, NIT Allahabad, etc., as Beta-Readers, will be available on Amazon, Nationally and Internationally from March 2020.
