

Buy the Best Romsons Nebulizers at Smart Medical Buyer

Delhi, Mar 16, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Incorporated in 1952, Romsons Scientific and Surgical Industries brought out revolutions in the healthcare sector. It was started as a partnership firm by Late Shri. Ram Lal Khanna and his sons in Amritsar. The company produced laboratory and scientific equipment like reusable surgical devices and sets and laboratory wares. The company shifted its base to Agra in 1962 to expand its base and reach out to more people across the country. In 1967 the company ventured into disposable medical devices with its first product being a non-sterile Nelatoh Catheter. This is when Romsons experienced immense growth and saw new heights as a producer of medical equipment. With constant innovation and a dedicated team, Romsons gradually became a leading manufacturer in India.

In 1984, Romsons became the first company in India that set up an in house sterilization plant. Over the years Romsons began exporting products across the globe and became an international business hub for medical devices and equipment. It started dealing in supplies in the field of cardio, gastro, surgery, urology, anaesthesia, and urology among others. The wide variety of products is produced in numerous models to suit the complexity in the medical field. They deal in nebulizers, iv cannulas, respirometer, vein guard, breazer, grounding pad, klik clamps and other medical supplies. These products are extremely reliable and are trusted by medical professionals all over the world. Given the importance of Romsons products, they are easily available on all medical online platforms and stores.
