About Dylan Slattery

Dylan wondered, “What would he need to do to get up on stage and inspire thousands of people to become the best version of themselves?” Little did he know, he would beat cancer twice, surviving a fatal car accident, lose 60 pounds and take major strides to become the best version of himself.

Through the power of story, Dylan takes the stage inspiring audiences across the country to fall in love with themselves and the process of becoming the person they were put on this earth to be. Dylan moves his audience to the purpose that is bigger than self.
