

FTX InfoTech Launches Its New Interactive Website in February 2020

Newark, Mar 5, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - FTX InfoTech, one of the leading Web, Mobile, and Enterprise solution providers, launches its website for global clients. Our new website delivers user-friendly browsing experience and helpful resources like blogs to be utilized. Our goal of designing a new website is to deliver a more user-friendly and easy-to-navigate site that strives as an industry leader in delivering web and mobile app development services you can use to boost your business.

Our company deals with website development, mobile app development, digital marketing, and software solutions. Since our inception, we have grown as one of the leading IT solution providers and it is reflected in our customers' portfolio. At FasTrax InfoTech, we have a talented and experienced team of web developers, mobile app developers, digital marketers, business analysts, etc. that delivers excellent services to end clients.

Our prospective and current clients will find information about services, our expertise, our development process, and portfolio on the homepage of the website. There are direct links to our web development, mobile app development, JavaScript development, UI/UX design, Digital Marketing, and Hire dedicated developer service pages on the home page along with its sub-services, for users to access with ease.

If we talk about the current boom in development services, the Managing Director of the company started, "We always encourage to utilizing technology and comprehensively working on new methodologies as far as web, mobile and software solution concerned. We also concentrate on the latest technology news through the blog section so our potential clients can understand important the rapidly shifting paradigm of technology."

Having a decade of experience and our unique technologies, FasTrax Infotech prides itself on its commitment to delivering its customers the industry's highest quality services and products. We are focusing on keeping our services up to date and working as per the current industry trends. Through our expertise, our experts are helping many businesses whether it is startup or enterprises to grow and be stand out from their competitors.

Our new website also has integrated social media buttons for Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, and Pinterest to foster improved communication with the clients. We will be also updating helpful information, latest technology news, company announcement, blogs and other things in our social media accounts.

Our company also offers a wide of products, including FasTraxPOS, Digital Signage, Uplift, FX AdPro, FTX Warehouse, and FTX Loyalty. We, at FasTrax InfoTech, have earned a complete client base across the globe for offering excellent business solutions. We are equipped with well-structured infrastructure and a dedicated team of experts to cater to every business requirement, ranging from startups to enterprises.

Want to know more about our company and offerings, visit <https://www.ftxinfotech.com/>.

Media Contact

FasTrax Infotech

sales-ftxinfotech.com@ftxinfotech.com

Source : FasTrax Infotech

See on IssueWire